Supporting young people, adult volunteers and youth groups during the pandemic

The UK's youth organisations and young people have been hit hard by the pandemic. Although cadet units and youth groups have been forced to close their doors temporarily, there are many fully-funded opportunities available from CVQO to gain qualifications and new skills via online study.

BTEC LEVEL 2

Teamwork and Personal Development in the Community

or

Music for Practical Performance

16-18 year olds

This is our primary qualification which is studied and completed by thousands of youth group members each year. The BTEC Level 2 can be studied entirely online.

- online enrolments
- electronic workbooks
- Zoom tutorials

For cadets in England meeting the age criteria, the qualification is likely to be available at no cost to the learner. Limited funding is available for cadets in Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

ILM Level 2

Effective Team Member Skills

14-16 year olds

The ILM Level 2 in Effective Team Member Skills is aimed at learners who form part of a team, for example, at their school, cadet force, community youth organisation or social action project – and is accredited by ILM. It can be studied and completed online.

- online enrolments
- electronic workbooks
- full support from CVQO

“CVQO has been the foot in the door to so many opportunities for me. I started my CVQO journey at 16 when I began my Level 2 Diploma in Teamwork and Personal Development in the Community. Having the BTEC on my CV has prompted so many positive things for me, including university.”

Louisa House – Hereford and Worcester Army Cadet Force on her BTEC Level 2, studied online

“The course has been challenging to run through lockdown, but it has equally given us a unique opportunity to allow CFAVs to be fully focused on the qualification, which has helped to make the course a big success.”

2Lt Conor Maher, Devon Army Cadet Force, on the BTEC Level 3 Education & Training course completed online during lockdown
